OPERATION INSTRUCTION NO.3

5th, December, 1939.

1. With a view to augmenting the existing arrangements for policing the area adjacent to the Ocean Terminals, Military guards are to be employed on certain days to assist in denying to the general public access to the points of actual detrainment and embarkation.

2. These guards will be furnished from a company of infantry to be detailed by Halifax Fortress Commander.

3. The strength of the Company will be not less than 5 Officers and 75 other ranks and will be held in readiness to report to Embarkation Staff Officer at the Immigration building, Ocean Terminals at 0900 hours, 6th, December, 1939. The periods during which the Military guards will be required for duty will be communicated to O.C. Company by the Embarkation Staff.

4. The guards will assist in policing the detrainment and embarkation areas by means of a system of posts and cordons, where necessary obstacles in the form of knife rests and rope barriers will be provided.

5. The duties will be carried out in closest co-operation with the Embarkation Staff, Port authorities and the civil police or special constables on duty in the area.

6. Meals and sleeping accommodations for the personnel of the military guards will be provided by the O.C. Port Rest Camp. The latter will provide mattresses but NOT blankets.

3. EQUIPMENT - PATIENTS, MILITARY HOSPITAL.

Numerous patients entering the Military Hospital have been bringing with them their rifles and equipment.

A man being admitted to hospital should bring with him merely his haversack with "small kit".

The pack store space available at the Halifax Military Hospital is limited, and as a result of the above the congestion in the small stores necessitates an extra amount of work in sorting out kits on admission and discharge from Hospital.
