3. AIRGRAPH SERVICE TO MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.

1. A special Airgraph Service is being established by the Post Office Department in conjunction with the Canadian Army Postal Service Overseas by which letters can be sent from Canada by air to members of the Armed Forces in the United Kingdom.

2. The messages are written on special forms obtainable at all Post Offices in Canada.

3. The messages are photographed on miniature film and the film is despatched overseas by air. On arrival overseas the messages are reproduced on a print measuring approximately 5 inches by 4 inches. The reproduced letters are placed in envelopes and delivered to the address of the Unit or formation by the Canadian Army Postal Services or the General Post Office.

4. This special service, which includes Air transportation in Canada and across the Atlantic, offers a speedy method of communication at a reduced charge. The inclusive fee of 10 cents is paid by means of a postage stamp affixed to the message form.

5. The service goes into effect on the 15th, November, 1941.

6. The foregoing is to be repeated in Unit Orders and republished therein from time to time.
