WAR DIARIES, C.A.S.F.

Instructions for Compilation and Despatch

1. A War Diary is SECRET.

2. The War Diary takes the place of the Historical Record when on active service. (K.R. Can. Para. 1530). Its objects are: to supply authentic material for the history of the unit, and of the force; to furnish a historical record of operations; and to provide data upon which to base improvements in training, equipment, organization and administration.

3. Unless otherwise ordered, the original and duplicate copies are sent on the first day of the succeeding month, through the usual channels, to the A.G., 2nd Echelon, wherever that office may be. The triplicate copy may be held by the unit for three months and then forwarded, also through the usual channels, to A.G., 2nd Echelon.

4. Post-war disposal will be as under:

Original—retained at Ottawa for historical purposes.

Duplicate—to British Record Office for historical purposes.

Triplicate—to unit for custody with unit records.

5. The War Diary will be entered up daily on M.F.M. 11 and rendered monthly in triplicate (Mobn. Instr. for C.M. 1937. App. "C"). Each entry will be initialled by the officer detailed to keep the War Diary, which will be signed at the end of each month by the commander. (F.S.R. Vol. II, Sec. 35, para. 3 iii).

6. The following should be recorded daily as events occur:

(i) Important orders, instructions, reports, messages or despatches received and issued, and decisions taken. Original documents should be attached as appendices to the Original copy of the War Diary.

(ii) Daily map location, employment, movements and dispositions of unit headquarters and of batteries, companies, etc. March tables should be attached as appendices.

(iii) Important movements of officers and matters relating to the duties of each branch of the staff. A complete set of the routine orders and instructions, Part I Orders, issued by the unit during the month should be attached as an appendix to the original copy.

(iv) Detailed account of operations—to include:—Exact hour, location and circumstances of important occurrences. Movements and names of neighbouring units. Commanders of batteries, companies, etc., names of Officers and number of O.R. (i) engaged and (ii) battle casualties. Dispositions, activities and identity of enemy forces. Prisoners and trophies captured. Ammunition expended. Factors affecting operations, topographical and climatic. Maps and sketches showing dispositions of batteries, companies etc., at important phases. The record of communications, both written and verbal, received or despatched during active operations as an appendix. A complete set of the operation orders and instructions issued during the month. Notes on conferences and reports rendered to higher formations, or received from lower formations, as appendices to the original copy.

(v) Nature and description of trenches, field works or accommodation occupied or constructed. Meteorological notes.

(vi) Changes in establishment or strength. Names and ranks of officers and number of O.R. Attachment of units and individuals. Reinforcements. Copy of Part II Orders and Weekly Field Returns of Officers and O.R. should be attached as appendices to the original copy. Changes in organization, stores, transport, etc.

7. It is essential that all copies of both text and appendices are legible. Appendices will be numbered and referenced to the text in the last column of the form. Current issues of any regimental publication should be attached.

8. It will be found convenient at the end of each month, when the War Diary is being completed and the correspondence in unit files for the month is being reviewed and distributed (F.S.R. Vol. I, sec. 171, para. 3) if the material considered to be of historical value in the light of the above is attached as appendices to the original copy of the War Diary.

9. A good war diary makes possible the accurate and detailed reconstruction of circumstances, conditions and action.

NOTE: If monthly diary is more than one inch thick, use a second folder. If appendices are bulky, tie folder up with tape or string to make a firm package.

PRESERVE IMPORTANT ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS FOR POSTERITY: INSERT THEM AS APPENDICES IN ORIGINAL COPY OF WAR DIARY

THE EXTRACTION AND RETENTION OF APPENDICES, MAPS, ETC., FROM A WAR DIARY IS AN OFFENCE UNDER THE OFFICIAL SECRETS ACT

UNIT OFFICE FILING SYSTEM AND RECORDS

"Every office will arrange for the filing and custody of its own correspondence." (F.S.R. Vol. I. Sec. 171.3.)

1. Titles and Numbering of Files.

A simple filing system adaptable for use in any military office at home or in the field is illustrated by the "List of File Titles" overleaf.

All documents handled by a unit fall into one or other of the nine categories enumerated, 1 to 9. The titles of the nine main divisions are based on British army operations, organization, administration and the regulations governing. Each title may be broken down into ten component parts or sub-titles, by adding a dash and subsidiary numbers 0 to 9. In turn each of these may be further broken down by adding a second dash and a third digit, and if necessary a third dash and a fourth digit. Thus 4-7-3 might be "Cooking Course at Kingston." According to circumstances, a fighting unit would expand the 1-3 prefix to accommodate all arms and services with which it may be concerned

2. Date reference.

In giving communications a reference number, it is convenient to use the date system of four figures indicating day and month, e.g. 0102 for 1st February; 3010 for 30th October.

3. Combined Numeration.

If the systems outlined in paras 1 and 2 are combined, by placing the four date figures under the subject file numbers, a simple and informative method of reference results, thus might be immediately identified as a communication dealing with replacement of gas masks, dated 8th April.

$$\begin{array}{r} 2-6-1 \\ \hline 0804 \end{array}$$

NOTE.—This method is not applicable to signal messages, A.F.C. 2128, which bear serial numbers 1 to 9999. The use of dashes eliminates confusion between serial numbers and file numbers.

4. Documents for Preservation.

The monthly review of correspondence (F.S.R. Vol. I, sec. 171.3) is facilitated and future confusion avoided by jacketing the material in "Category ii" (i.e., "no longer required", etc.) to conform with the system.

5. Correspondence in the Field.

The functioning of the office of a formation or unit during active operations may be simplified by keeping a log or register of all orders and messages, written or verbal, received or sent during the action. This may conveniently be done by extending the use of the "Field Register of Communications Received or Despatched", (Army Form 2040, F.S.R. Vol. I. sec. 171) to include verbal as well as written orders and messages in chronological order as received or sent.

Time of sending and of receipt are of importance second only to time of event, and should be entered both on the office copy of every field message or other document, and in the log or register. A carbon copy for contemporary reference of the commander or others concerned is desirable.

A brief précis of written orders, reports and messages, with the sender's number, is sufficient, for they will be kept on file. But particular care is necessary in making entries of times of moves and of verbal orders, reports or conversations, by telephone or otherwise, which in the stress of action, may not otherwise be recorded on paper. In battle, operations messages dealt with by one officer may number over twenty-five per hour for several hours on end.

The record should be kept convenient to the telephone. Entries may be made by a clerk, or by the officer on duty at the telephone.

Such a record is invaluable to the commander in making appreciations of the situation during the action, and in compiling his report on the action afterwards. It is contemporary evidence of the highest quality, and therefore is of the highest historical value, and should be attached as an appendix to the original copy of the War Diary, together with the original documents sent and received.

(Appendix to Routine Order No. 147 C.A.S.F.
22 Nov. 39).

He was sentenced to 16 months detention.

5-A General

(1) While the making of a Will is not compulsory, it is pointed out that to avoid delay and expense in the administration of estates of deceased personnel, it is very important in the interests of survivors that all personnel should have made wills, either civilian or army, and that in each case either the Will or the name and address of its custodian should be filed with the Offr i/c Records either at National Defence Headquarters or at CMHQ.

(2) Army Wills

Personnel who have made Civilian Wills which they wish to keep in force should not execute Army Wills.

Where a person having a Civilian Will has executed an Army Will through inadvertence he should execute a further Will for the purpose of reviving his Civilian Will, which further Will may be in form as follows:-

WHEREAS upon or or since joining the Canadian Army I have executed a Will on Military Form (hereinafter referred to as the Army Will) not realizing at the time of such execution that the execution of the Army Will had the effect of revoking previous testamentary dispositions made by me.

AND WHEREAS prior to the execution of the Army Will I had executed a last Will (hereinafter referred to as the Civilian Will), the date of which I do not know.

NOW I HEREBY DECLARE this to be a codicil to the Civilian Will, and I hereby declare my intention to revive the Civilian Will and all codicils thereto and I declare such Civilian Will and all codicils thereto to be and contain my last and only Will and testament.

(4) All personnel should make new Wills on becoming married, as the laws of most Provinces of Canada provide that marriage revokes Wills made prior thereto, except when expressly made in contemplation thereof. Overseas Routine Order 191 provides for forms of Wills on the reverse of which are instructions for their completion. These instructions will be followed in the execution of the above form. It should be noted that whereas one original only of M.F.M. 10 or 10(a) are to be completed, two copies of the above form are to be executed. When the above form has been completed in duplicate, both copies will be forwarded to the Offr i/c Records, Canadian Military Headquarters, who will forward the Army Will thereby revoked to the Offr Commanding the soldier's unit, for delivery to him.

4. CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS GREETING

4-A

1. The GOC, 4 Cdn Armd Div, has issued the following Christmas and New Year's greeting, which will be read to all ranks on or before Christmas Day:

" In a few days Christmas will be here, and, for the majority of us, it will be the first Christmas spent overseas on Active Service. I should like to take this opportunity of wishing every one of you A MERRY CHRISTMAS, and I hope that the strong spirit of comradeship within your units and the Division will do much to compensate you for being away from your homes this Season.

The passing year has seen the force of our arms change from the defensive to the offensive. Our aspirations, individually and collectively, are great for 1943, and it is with pride that we enter the new Year side by side with the formations which have preceded us, ready to meet the enemy when the time is ripe. To this end, I wish you all a HAPPY AND SUCCESSFUL NEW YEAR",

2. PAYBOOKS - PERSONNEL PROCEEDING TO HOSPITAL
2-A

1. Notwithstanding the instructions in Overseas RO's and Pmr's Circular Letters, soldiers continue to arrive at hospital without Parts I and II of their Service and Pay Books. This causes great difficulty in maintaining proper records of cash payments to these soldiers.

2. CO's will therefore make the necessary arrangements within their units to ensure that when soldiers proceed to hospital they have both parts of their Paybook with them, or, failing this, that the Paybook is despatched to the hospital as soon as possible after the soldier is evacuated.

3. In order to carry this out, unit arrangements will include the following:

- (a) Soldiers will be instructed to carry their Paybooks at all times including when going on sick parade.
- (b) Unit pmrs will regulate the number of Paybooks called in to be written up so that no paybook will be retained for more than 48 hrs.
- (c) Unit Pmrs will be informed daily of soldiers admitted to hospital, and if, in an emergency case a soldier has left without his Paybook, it will be fwd at once by the unit Pmr to the Pmr of the Fd Amb, CCS or Hosp concerned.
