WAR DIARIES, C.A.S.F.

Instructions for Compilation and Despatch

1. A War Diary is SECRET.

2. The War Diary takes the place of the Historical Record when on active service. (K.R. Can. Para. 1530). Its objects are: to supply authentic material for the history of the unit, and of the force; to furnish a historical record of operations; and to provide data upon which to base improvements in training, equipment, organization and administration.

3. Unless otherwise ordered, the original and duplicate copies are sent on the first day of the succeeding month, through the usual channels, to the A.G., 2nd Echelon, wherever that office may be. The triplicate copy may be held by the unit for three months and then forwarded, also through the usual channels, to A.G., 2nd Echelon.

4. Post-war disposal will be as under:

Original—retained at Ottawa for historical purposes.

Duplicate—to British Record Office for historical purposes.

Triplicate—to unit for custody with unit records.

5. The War Diary will be entered up daily on M.F.M. 11 and rendered monthly in triplicate (Mohn. Instr. for C.M. 1937. App. "C"). Each entry will be initialled by the officer detailed to keep the War Diary, which will be signed at the end of each month by the commander. (F.S.R. Vol. II, Sec. 35, para. 3 iii).

6. The following should be recorded daily as events occur:

(i) Important orders, instructions, reports, messages or despatches received and issued, and decisions taken. Original documents should be attached as appendices to the Original copy of the War Diary.

(ii) Daily map location, employment, movements and dispositions of unit headquarters and of batteries, companies, etc. March tables should be attached as appendices.

(iii) Important movements of officers and matters relating to the duties of each branch of the staff. A complete set of the routine orders and instructions, Part I Orders, issued by the unit during the month should be attached as an appendix to the original copy.

(iv) Detailed account of operations—to include:—
Exact hour, location and circumstances of important occurrences. Movements and names of neighbouring units. Commanders of batteries, companies, etc., names of Officers and number of O.R. (i) engaged and (ii) battle casualties. Dispositions, activities and identity of enemy forces. Prisoners and trophies captured. Ammunition expended. Factors affecting operations, topographical and climatic. Maps and sketches showing dispositions of batteries, companies etc., at important phases. The record of communications, both written and verbal, received or despatched during active operations as an appendix. A complete set of the operation orders and instructions issued during the month. Notes on conferences and reports rendered to higher formations, or received from lower formations, as appendices to the original copy.

(v) Nature and description of trenches, field works or accommodation occupied or constructed. Meteorological notes.

(vi) Changes in establishment or strength. Names and ranks of officers and number of O.R. Attachment of units and individuals. Reinforcements. Copy of Part II Orders and Weekly Field Returns of Officers and O.R. should be attached as appendices to the original copy. Changes in organization, stores, transport, etc.

7. It is essential that all copies of both text and appendices are legible. Appendices will be numbered and referenced to the text in the last column of the form. Current issues of any regimental publication should be attached.

8. It will be found convenient at the end of each month, when the War Diary is being completed and the correspondence in unit files for the month is being reviewed and distributed (F.S.R. Vol. I, sec. 171, para. 3) if the material considered to be of historical value in the light of the above is attached as appendices to the original copy of the War Diary.

9. A good war diary makes possible the accurate and detailed reconstruction of circumstances, conditions and action.

NOTE: If monthly diary is more than one inch thick, use a second folder. If appendices are bulky, tie folder up with tape or string to make a firm package.

PRESERVE IMPORTANT ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS FOR POSTERITY: INSERT THEM AS APPENDICES IN ORIGINAL COPY OF WAR DIARY

UNIT OFFICE FILING SYSTEM AND RECORDS

"Every office will arrange for the filing and custody of its own correspondence." (F.S.R. Vol. I. Sec. 171.3.)

1. Titles and Numbering of Files.

A simple filing system adaptable for use in any military office at home or in the field is illustrated by the "List of File Titles" overleaf.

All documents handled by a unit fall into one or other of the nine categories enumerated, 1 to 9. The titles of the nine main divisions are based on British army operations, organization, administration and the regulations governing. Each title may be broken down into ten component parts or sub-titles, by adding a dash and subsidiary numbers 0 to 9. In turn each of these may be further broken down by adding a second dash and a third digit, and if necessary a third dash and a fourth digit. Thus 4-7-3 might be "Cooking Course at Kingston." According to circumstances, a fighting unit would expand the 1-3 prefix to accommodate all arms and services with which it may be concerned

2. Date reference.

In giving communications a reference number, it is convenient to use the date system of four figures indicating day and month, e.g. 0102 for 1st February; 3010 for 30th October.

3. Combined Numeration.

If the systems outlined in paras 1 and 2 are combined, by placing the four date figures under the subject file numbers, a simple and informative method of reference results, thus might be immediately identified as a communication dealing with replacement of gas masks, dated 8th April.

$$\begin{array}{r} 2-6-1 \\ \hline 0804 \end{array}$$

NOTE.—This method is not applicable to signal messages, A.F.C. 2128, which bear serial numbers 1 to 9999. The use of dashes eliminates confusion between serial numbers and file numbers.

4. Documents for Preservation.

The monthly review of correspondence (F.S.R. Vol. I, sec. 171.3) is facilitated and future confusion avoided by jacketing the material in "Category ii" (i.e., "no longer required", etc.) to conform with the system.

5. Correspondence in the Field.

The functioning of the office of a formation or unit during active operations may be simplified by keeping a log or register of all orders and messages, written or verbal, received or sent during the action. This may conveniently be done by extending the use of the "Field Register of Communications Received or Despatched", (Army Form 2040, F.S.R. Vol. I. sec. 171) to include verbal as well as written orders and messages in chronological order as received or sent.

Time of sending and of receipt are of importance second only to time of event, and should be entered both on the office copy of every field message or other document, and in the log or register. A carbon copy for contemporary reference of the commander or others concerned is desirable.

A brief précis of written orders, reports and messages, with the sender's number, is sufficient, for they will be kept on file. But particular care is necessary in making entries of times of moves and of verbal orders, reports or conversations, by telephone or otherwise, which in the stress of action, may not otherwise be recorded on paper. In battle, operations messages dealt with by one officer may number over twenty-five per hour for several hours on end.

The record should be kept convenient to the telephone. Entries may be made by a clerk, or by the officer on duty at the telephone.

Such a record is invaluable to the commander in making appreciations of the situation during the action, and in compiling his report on the action afterwards. It is contemporary evidence of the highest quality, and therefore is of the highest historical value, and should be attached as an appendix to the original copy of the War Diary, together with the original documents sent and received.

(Appendix to Routine Order No. 147 C.A.S.F.
22 Nov. 39).

3. SECURITY OF OFFICIAL INFORMATION

The attention of all ranks is directed to Appx "A" to 4 Div Routine Order No. 1338 which is published as an appx to this order.

4. PURCHASE OF FOOD AND TOBACCO BY TROOPS ON THE MARCH

1. Instances have arisen recently where troops on the march, on being halted in villages, have been permitted to fall out and purchase food and tobacco in the village shops with the result that no supplies are available for the inhabitants.
2. In such cases, the troops, who are provided with adequate rations and who have further provision made in the canteens run by NAAFI and Auxiliary Service Organizations, are buying and consuming the limited supplies available for the civilian population.
3. Conduct of this nature is not only a breach of march discipline but is also calculated to damage the good feeling which should exist between the Army and the civilian population.
4. O's.C. will ensure that when on the march or in convoy, troops are forbidden to fall out for the purpose of entering the shops of any town or village in which they may be halted.

5. DISCIPLINE-SAFETY PRECAUTIONS TO BE OBSERVED by troops walking out during hours of darkness.

1. Owing to the regrettable number of accidents, involving loss of life, which have occurred during the hours of "black-out", it is considered desirable that the attention of all ranks should be drawn to the necessity of taking the normal precautions when walking in public thoroughfares at night when off duty or on duty as individuals. It should be pointed out that drivers of vehicles are often unable to see pedestrians, particularly those dressed in khaki, in sufficient time to avert an accident.
2. In places where no footway is in existence and it becomes necessary to walk in a roadway, pedestrians should walk on the right-hand side of the road, i.e., against the oncoming traffic, and not on the left-hand side, where there is always the danger of being run down from the rear by overtaking traffic.
3. All traffic signals must be observed and thoroughfares crossed only at the appointed pedestrian crossings, when these are available.

6. SHORT COURSES FOR CANADIANS

A series of one-week courses on the Co-Operative Movement has been arranged especially for members of the Canadian Forces on leave.

BLACKOUT TIME - 1 May 43

Commencing at 2152 hrs; ceasing at 0557 hrs.

SECTION OF OFFICIAL INFORMATION

1. All members of a Headquarters, including all signal operators, signal office personnel and drivers of Headquarters cars are reminded that they are employed in a position of trust and are, therefore, under an obligation of secrecy.

2. No military information which may come to a person's knowledge as a result of employment at a Headquarters will be communicated to any person NOT employed at such Headquarters, except when necessary in the performance of duty. Information which may seem quite trivial may possibly give a clue to important military matters, with disastrous results to our forces. Everyone therefore, will make a definite rule NOT to mention any phase of their work to any person or to discuss any phase of their work with another member of the staff, when there is any possibility of being overheard. Particular discretion will be observed when talking on the telephone with regard to military affairs. Signal operators and signal office personnel, likewise all drivers of Headquarters cars, are warned that any conversations regarding military matters they may overhear during the performance of their duties must be treated as secret and confidential.

3. Members of a Headquarters will NOT communicate confidential or secret information to other members of the staff unless it is necessary for the proper performance of their duties.

5. PRECAUTIONS TO BE OBSERVED IN THE USE OF ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES
5-A

(1) The normal electricity supply for lighting or power purposes can, under certain circumstances, cause serious injury or death, and it is essential that alterations should not be carried out by unauthorized personnel

(ii) The danger of injury through shock or burns is greatly increased when electrical appliances such as irons, heaters, hair driers, etc., are used in damp surroundings or in the vicinity of "earthed" metal, such as water pipes or taps, sinks, baths, etc. and for this reason socket outlets, for the connection of electrical appliances, will not under any circumstances be installed in bathrooms or wash-houses nor will such appliances be taken into these places.

(iii) An electric shock usually indicates a defect in the system or appliance, and any instances of shock, sustained in W.C. or requisitioned properties, will be reported immediately to the QUARTERMASTER.

5. Dress - shorts & shirts or sweaters, socks, canvas shoes or running shoes.

3. LEGAL AID
3-A

1. The need for a legal aid scheme for soldiers serving in the Canadian Army Overseas has become increasingly apparent. In addition to giving legal advice to soldiers in the United Kingdom, a plan has been devised whereby through the courtesy of the Canadian Bar Association, legal assistance will be furnished, in certain classes of cases, to personnel of the Canadian Army Overseas by members of the legal profession in Canada.
2. This aid is available only in respect of civil legal problems, and is not applicable in disciplinary action, criminal offences, or in any matters, such as pay and allowances, which can be dealt with through other channels. The function of this scheme is advisory as to the legal solution and necessary action. The conduct of litigation will not be undertaken by officers rendering aid. The expense of any action taken by the soldier on such advice is to be borne by him.
3. It is also to be clearly understood by all ranks seeking and acting on such legal aid that any advice or assistance rendered is given and received on the condition that the recipient has no right to compensation against either the Crown or the officer or other person giving the same for any loss or damage suffered as a consequence of any negligence in or arising out of the giving of that advice or assistance.
4. In order that a soldier who requires legal advice may have his case disposed of expeditiously, and in appropriate cases forwarded to Canada for attention by the Canadian Bar Association, the following action will be taken forthwith:-

(a) Legal Aid Bureaux will be formed at all formation headquarters and will be under the direction of the legal officer appropriate to that formation.

(b) Such Bureaux will consist of a panel of regimental officers selected from serving solicitors, where possible one officer from each unit of the formation. While service on the panel is on a voluntary basis, it is expected that all serving solicitors will offer their assistance.

(To sheet 2)

3. LEGAL AID (cont'd)

(c) The panel of serving solicitors will be maintained by the formation legal officer and he will notify commanding officers of units, and each member of the panel, of the names and units of the serving solicitors comprising the panel.

5. Personnel desiring legal advice may be given permission to consult any of the serving solicitors on their respective formation panels. Commanding officers will ensure that every facility is afforded to personnel desiring advice so that they may receive such advice with the least possible delay.

6. The intention behind the Legal Aid scheme is that soldiers will be able to obtain private legal advice on confidential matters. It is therefore contrary to the intention for commanding officers to insist that the officers rendering such legal aid should disclose to them what transpires in the Legal Aid Bureau, in the sense that the details of the cases, in which advice is given to soldiers of their units, should be made known. It cannot be too strongly emphasized that the assistance given to a soldier over his private affairs is kept entirely as a confidential matter between the soldier concerned and his adviser.

7. Detailed instructions for the guidance of formation legal officers and serving solicitors will be issued separately in Pamphlet form.

(C.A.(O)R.O. 5215)

4. LEGAL AID

4-A

Capt. J.A. MacDonald is appointed under the provisions of C.A.R.O. 3215 and of 2 C.R.O. 62 to give legal aid to all ranks in the Unit when required.

"I want to thank you and your Bn for the very great assistance and co-operation which you gave us on exercise "Kruschen". All the officers who came and visited us - I forget how many but at least a dozen -, and all the N.C.O's and men who passed through during the keenness, smartness and efficiency. I am very proud indeed to have had such a fine detachment under my command and I should very much like to fight alongside your Bn.

It is usually considered polite to say complimentary things about men of other units who have been on det-sincerely hope we all meet again.
