WAR DIARIES, C.A.S.F.

Instructions for Compilation and Despatch

1. A War Diary is SECRET.

2. The War Diary takes the place of the Historical Record when on active service. (K.R. Can. Para. 1530). Its objects are: to supply authentic material for the history of the unit, and of the force; to furnish a historical record of operations; and to provide data upon which to base improvements in training, equipment, organization and administration.

3. Unless otherwise ordered, the original and duplicate copies are sent on the first day of the succeeding month, through the usual channels, to the A.G., 2nd Echelon, wherever that office may be. The triplicate copy may be held by the unit for three months and then forwarded, also through the usual channels, to A.G., 2nd Echelon.

4. Post-war disposal will be as under:

Original—retained at Ottawa for historical purposes.

Duplicate—to British Record Office for historical purposes.

TriPLICATE—to unit for custody with unit records.

5. The War Diary will be entered up daily on M.F.M. 11 and rendered monthly in triplicate (Mdn. Instr. for C.M. 1937. App. "C"). Each entry will be initialled by the officer detailed to keep the War Diary, which will be signed at the end of each month by the commander. (F.S.R. Vol. II, Sec. 35, para. 3 iii).

THE EXTRACTION AND RETENTION OF APPENDICES, MAPS, ETC., FROM A WAR DIARY IS AN OFFENCE
UNDER THE OFFICIAL SECRETS ACT

6. The following should be recorded daily as events occur:

- (i) Important orders, instructions, reports, messages or despatches received and issued, and decisions taken. Original documents should be attached as appendices to the Original copy of the War Diary.
- (ii) Daily map location, employment, movements and dispositions of unit headquarters and of batteries, companies, etc. March tables should be attached as appendices.
- (iii) Important movements of officers and matters relating to the duties of each branch of the staff. A complete set of the routine orders and instructions, Part I Orders, issued by the unit during the month should be attached as an appendix to the original copy.
- (iv) Detailed account of operations—to include:— Exact hour, location and circumstances of important occurrences. Movements and names of neighbouring units. Commanders of batteries, companies, etc., names of Officers and number of O.R. (i) engaged and (ii) battle casualties. Dispositions, activities and identity of enemy forces. Prisoners and trophies captured. Ammunition expended. Factors affecting operations, topographical and climatic. Maps and sketches showing dispositions of batteries, companies etc., at important phases. The record of communications, both written and verbal, received or despatched during active operations as an appendix. A complete set of the operation orders and instructions issued during the month. Notes on conferences and reports rendered to higher formations, or received from lower formations, as appendices to the original copy.

(v) Nature and description of trenches, field works or accommodation occupied or constructed. Meteorological notes.

(vi) Changes in establishment or strength. Names and ranks of officers and number of O.R. Attachment of units and individuals. Reinforcements. Copy of Part II Orders and Weekly Field Returns of Officers and O.R. should be attached as appendices to the original copy. Changes in organization, stores, transport, etc.

7. It is essential that all copies of both text and appendices are legible. Appendices will be numbered and referenced to the text in the last column of the form. Current issues of any regimental publication should be attached.

8. It will be found convenient at the end of each month, when the War Diary is being completed and the correspondence in unit files for the month is being reviewed and distributed (F.S.R. Vol. I, sec. 171, para. 3) if the material considered to be of historical value in the light of the above is attached as appendices to the original copy of the War Diary.

9. A good war diary makes possible the accurate and detailed reconstruction of circumstances, conditions and action.

NOTE: If monthly diary is more than one inch thick, use a second folder. If appendices are bulky, tie folder up with tape or string to make a firm package.

PRESERVE IMPORTANT ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS FOR POSTERITY: INSERT THEM AS APPENDICES IN ORIGINAL COPY OF WAR DIARY

UNIT OFFICE FILING SYSTEM AND RECORDS

"Every office will arrange for the filing and custody of its own correspondence." (F.S.R. Vol. I. Sec. 171.3.)

1. Titles and Numbering of Files.

A simple filing system adaptable for use in any military office at home or in the field is illustrated by the "List of File Titles" overleaf.

All documents handled by a unit fall into one or other of the nine categories enumerated, 1 to 9. The titles of the nine main divisions are based on British army operations, organization, administration and the regulations governing. Each title may be broken down into ten component parts or sub-titles, by adding a dash and subsidiary numbers 0 to 9. In turn each of these may be further broken down by adding a second dash and a third digit, and if necessary a third dash and a fourth digit. Thus 4-7-3 might be "Cooking Course at Kingston." According to circumstances, a fighting unit would expand the 1-3 prefix to accommodate all arms and services with which it may be concerned.

2. Date reference.

In giving communications a reference number, it is convenient to use the date system of four figures indicating day and month, e.g. 0102 for 1st February; 3010 for 30th October.

3. Combined Numeration.

If the systems outlined in paras 1 and 2 are combined, by placing the four date figures under the subject file numbers, a simple and informative method of reference results, thus might be immediately identified as a communication dealing with replacement of gas masks, dated 8th April.

2-6-1

NOTE.—This method is not applicable to signal messages, A.F.C. 2128, which bear serial numbers 1 to 9999. The use of dashes eliminates confusion between serial numbers and file numbers.

4. Documents for Preservation.

The monthly review of correspondence (F.S.R. Vol. I, sec. 171.3) is facilitated and future confusion avoided by jacketing the material in "Category ii" (i.e., "no longer required", etc.) to conform with the system.

5. Correspondence in the Field.

The functioning of the office of a formation or unit during active operations may be simplified by keeping a log or register of all orders and messages, written or verbal, received or sent during the action. This may conveniently be done by extending the use of the "Field Register of Communications Received or Despatched", (Army Form 2040, F.S.R. Vol. I. sec. 171) to include verbal as well as written orders and messages in chronological order as received or sent.

Time of sending and of receipt are of importance second only to time of event, and should be entered both on the office copy of every field message or other document, and in the log or register. A carbon copy for contemporary reference of the commander or others concerned is desirable.

A brief précis of written orders, reports and messages, with the sender's number, is sufficient, for they will be kept on file. But particular care is necessary in making entries of times of moves and of verbal orders, reports or conversations, by telephone or otherwise, which in the stress of action, may not otherwise be recorded on paper. In battle, operations messages dealt with by one officer may number over twenty-five per hour for several hours on end.

The record should be kept convenient to the telephone. Entries may be made by a clerk, or by the officer on duty at the telephone.

Such a record is invaluable to the commander in making appreciations of the situation during the action, and in compiling his report on the action afterwards. It is contemporary evidence of the highest quality, and therefore is of the highest historical value, and should be attached as an appendix to the original copy of the War Diary, together with the original documents sent and received.

(Appendix to Routine Order No. 147 C.A.S.F.
22 Nov. 39).

He was convicted on all charges and sentenced to undergo 8 months (detention).

(2) On 13 Jan 44, K47428 Pte (A/L/Cpl) Robert Davidson BROWN, Westmr R(M) was tried by FGCM on three charges, incl one for assaulting an Italian civ.

He was convicted and sentenced to undergo imprisonment with hard labour for a period of one year.

5. TIME LIMIT - PHONE CALLS

The phone system throughout 8 Army is very heavily loaded. BREVITY IS ESSENTIAL both in conversations and the writing of messages. The following rules will be effective forthwith:

NO phone will be engaged by any one person for a time exceeding six minutes. Sig personnel will check this when possible.

Call the exchange and ring-off with a good strong ring.
Do NOT engage the op in conversation.

6. LOCAL PURCHASES - FOODSTUFFS

1. The orders restricting the purchase of foodstuffs by the Allied Forces in ITALY contained in Paras 3 - 5 below have been issued by Adv AFM after most careful consideration for the following reasons:

(a) There is a serious shortage of foodstuffs available in occupied ITALY for the civ population, the shortage being more acute at present on the western side of the country.

(b) It is essential in our common interests to reduce to the minimum possible the shipping tonnages required for imports into ITALY on purely civ account. Tonnage saved by husbanding local resources permits the import of an equivalent tonnage of war materials for our forces.

2. The orders contained in Paras 3 - 5 below do not prevent purchases by S & T within their powers of local purchase.

While fully appreciating the effect of these orders upon the individual, it is considered that the following advantages to the Eighth Army as a whole should result from this control by enabling S & T to obtain

(a) A better sup of special foodstuffs for CCSs and hosp.

(b) A more equitable distribution of items of local purchase throughout the Eighth Army and DAF.

(c) A better sup of fresh meat for Indian tps, of which there is a short supply at present.

3. All purchases of foodstuffs are forbidden with the following exceptions:

(a) Those made by the official purchasing agencies of the Allied Armies, Navies, and Air Forces.

(b) The purchase of such fruit and vegetables as may be declared surplus from time to time by the Allied Forces Local Resources (ITALIAN) Board and released for sale to the Allied Forces.

Purchases under (a) above will be published in official orders, and will be regulated by the Allied Forces Local Resources (ITALIAN) Board.

4. The following are specially prohibited except as provided for under 3 (a) above:

- (a) Fish
- (b) Eggs
- (c) Poultry
- (d) Meat
- (e) Livestock generally.

5. All restaurants and eating houses will be put out of bounds to all offrs and men of the Allied Forces with the following exceptions:

(a) Clubs, restaurants, etc organised and controlled by the Allied Forces themselves. These will have no right to make local purchases except as in 3 (b).

(b) Cafes, etc where no foodstuffs are sold.

6. The Allied Forces Local Resources (ITALIAN) Board has already authorised within the 1st Army Op area (excl any part of CAMPANIA), in accordance with para 3 (b) above, the purchase in unrestricted quantities by individuals and messes of all fruits and vegetables, other than potatoes, onions, and cabbages, subject to the official prices not being exceeded.

NUMBERING OF DF & DF(SOS) TASKS

1 It has been decided to adopt a system for numbering DF and DF (SOS) tasks.

2 Such a system makes tasks easily recognizable to all concerned and at the same time prevents any duplication of numbers.

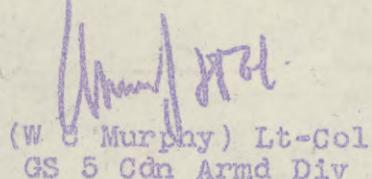

3 A block of numbers is allotted permanently to the Bde or unit concerned and is used only by that Bde or unit in the numbering of DF and DF (SOS) tasks. Bde or bn concerned gives to the gnrs a different number for each DF or DF (SOS) task at the time such task is given to the gnrs.

4 Blocks are allotted as follows:-

HQ 11 Cdn Inf Bde	1 - 25 incl
Perth R	26 - 50 "
C B Highrs	51 - 75 "
Ir RC	76 - 99 "
Westmr R (M)	101 -125 "

5 It is not considered that HQ 5 Cdn Armd Bde or armd regts will normally require a block allotment of numbers. Should an occasion arise where this becomes necessary, either a block allotment will be made or if the Westmr R (M) is under comd 5 Cdn Armd Bde a number or numbers from that unit's block may be used.

6 Numbers as indicated above will be prefixed by either the letters DF or DF (SOS) as may be applicable.

These Lads Go Sailing With a Slit Trench Raft

For It's "Yo, Ho and Not Much Rum" for Soldiers Who Man Watery Weapon Pits on Adriatic Front—Mud is Constant Menace

By Douglas Amaron
The Canadian Press

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY—Cpl. G. M. Smith, Owen Sound, Ont., dumped another bucket of water from his slit trench, looked at the clearing sky, and said: "It would be a pity if the sun were to shine now, I'm just getting used to this."

War Very Near

THE war seemed very near at this forward platoon position of a Central Canadian infantry battalion. Just a few hundreds yards away was the crest of a rise and beneath it, in the gully beyond, were the Germans.

Shells, flying so low you instinctively ducked as they passed overhead, screamed across the rise and crashed into the enemy's outposts. Mortar bombs, coming the other way, plopped into the area of a Canadian battalion on the right and you wondered when they would change direction and come your way.

But if the war seemed near, if the shells, the mortars and the machine-gunning in the gully were too real for comfort, the mud of that forward platoon area was nearer and more real. You could duck from high explosives, but the mud was constant.

Four-Foot Hole

Smith shared a slit trench with Pte. J. H. Scott, Schreiber, Ont. "Better than a house," they called it, this four-foot hole in the ground which they had occupied only two hours earlier and which they now were emptying of water.

Other slit trenches were nearby, housing the platoon commander, Lieut. D. A. Cook, Toronto; Sgt. H. A. Wright, Kincardine, Ont.; Cpl. L. D. Hood, Buttonville, Ont.; Ptes. L. W. Naylor, Toronto; A. Ferguson, Kent Road, N.S., and other members of the platoon.

Most of them were just deep holes, burrowed from the soft earth and covered with boards, straw, gas capes and whatever other protection was available.

More straw and boards formed a floor, through which the water seeped and the mud oozed.

18 Inches

One slit trench was not being used. It had been, previously, by Ptes. Nick Scollie, Port Arthur, Ont., and Tim Daly, Atwood, Ont., of another platoon, but when they moved back it was abandoned as "unseaworthy."

There were 18 inches of water in this trench and, despite constant balling, the level remained about the same. So Scollie and Daly built a "raft" and lived on it with the water slushing about beneath them.

All the men up here wore rubber boots and with good reason. After two week's steady rain and snow the ground was knee deep in goo, making even the damp slit trenches appear dry in comparison.

This platoon, said the battalion commanding officer, a lieutenant-colonel from Toronto, had the most "uncomfortable" positions. None claimed to like them but all made the best of a bad job and the jokes they cracked about the mud were a good indication of their high spirits.

More Fortunate

More fortunate were men of another company living in what their acting company commander, Capt. Frank Kennedy, Stratford, Ont., called "a little Stalingrad." This was a settlement of houses, smashed by shelling but with a few rooms intact to provide shelter and warmth.

There were stoves in the rooms, one with a chimney made from the casing for an 88 mm. shell. A novel hot-water shower — bucket and pulley style was set up in an airy room and soldiers coming back from patrols were soon clean again.

Making the most of these limited comforts were such men as Sgts. N. O. Bell, Toronto; J. A. Fulcher, St. Mary's, Ont., and Pte. G. W. Fursey, Preston, Ont.

The scout platoon, commanded by Lieut. George Gallagher, Port MacNichol, Ont., had a house of its own not far from battalion headquarters. Sharing two large rooms were the men who go out nightly to reconnoitre enemy positions.

Like a Cave

Cpl. C. C. Nadjiwan, Cape Croker, Ont., had been out the previous night, into a darkness so black that the hill he thought he saw ahead turned out to be a cave. Preparing to go out were Ptes. D. J. Smith, Kingston, Ont.; Alex Lang, Smith Falls, Ont.; A. E. Liske, Inglis, Man., and H. L. Nelmes, Kitchener, Ont.

"Rest Centre"

This battalion, whose positions in the mud and in ruined houses are typical of those you will find in every front line unit, was proud of its "rest centre." Scarcely half a mile from the German lines was a group of houses when men came back to dry out.

Each section sent a man back every 24 hours. For a day and a night the soldier was under cover, able to dry his clothes and his boots, to get three warm meals, to find some simple entertainment away from the "front".

Ran by the educational corporal, Hugh Patrick, of Yorkton, Sask., the centre catered to about 40 men a day. There were facilities for reading and writing, for darts, cards, bingo and other games.

"It's a sweet place, especially in weather like this," said Pte. J. H. Gigon, St. Catharines, Ont., and Ptes. Dan Laing, Guelph, Ont., and C. A. Salisbury, Mitchell, Ont. Listening with Gigon to a gramophone, agreed.

"Bed of Honor"

"Bed of honor" in the rest centre was reserved for an officer. Its cover was a huge red flag with a black swastika in the middle, property one time of a pro-Nazi Italian although all local residents disclaimed ownership.

Despite the proximity of the enemy, for this must have been the most forward rest centre in the Canadian corps, Patrick was making plans for a concert. He found some fine, golden hemp and decided it would make good wigs.

So if some time in the future the Germans report an attack by blood sirens, it will just be these Canadians who, even at the front, in the mud and in the rain know how to enjoy life.

Australian Tribute To Russian Forces

SYDNEY — The Russians were saluted this week in the name of Australia by John Curtin, the prime minister, who said: "The United Nations have a sense of deep gratitude for the Russian people for their devotion to the common cause."

He ordered that flags should be flown throughout Australia Wednesday—"Red Army Day."

LOOT NOT ACCEPTABLE

Allied nations have agreed not to accept from neutrals any gold representing Axis loot from occupied countries.

"The General can't say we weren't on the job this time."
